A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT

relating to considering for school district accountability purposes the performance of students confined by court order in a residential program or facility.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 39.072(d), Education Code, is amended by amending Subsection (d) to read as follows:

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, for purposes of determining the performance of a school district under this chapter, including the accreditation status of the district, a student confined by court order in a residential program or facility operated by or under contract with the Texas Youth Commission, Texas Juvenile Probation Commission, or any other governmental entity, including a juvenile board, is not considered to be a student of the school district in which the program or facility is physically located. The performance of such a student on an assessment instrument or other academic excellence indicator adopted under Section 39.051 shall be determined, reported, and considered separately from the performance of students attending a school of the district in which the program or facility is physically located.

Academic Accountability Questions and Answers

Q1. Which entity will be held accountable for the performance of students confined in a residential program or facility?

A1. The public school district providing services to students in the program or facility will still be responsible for evaluating and reporting student performance. However, the performance of these students on a state assessment instrument or other academic excellence indicator will not be tied to the district. In other words, the district's accountability rating will not be impacted (positively or adversely) by confined students.

Q2. If the host district's accountability rating is not impacted, what is the incentive for districts housing residential programs or facilities to provide appropriate educational services?

A2. There are two reasons. First of all, school districts have an ethical obligation to provide each student enrolled in the district a free and appropriate public education. HB 3092 does not change that obligation. Secondly, districts will still be responsible for reporting student performance for all students attending district campuses. Therefore, even though the performance of confined students on a state assessment instrument or other academic excellence indicator will not be tied to the district accountability ratings, the district campus in which the residential program or facility is housed will still receive an accountability rating that must be reported to the public.

HB 3092
Questions and Answers

Fiscal Impact Questions and Answers

Q1. Which entity receives the ADA (Average Daily Attendance) funding for students confined in a residential program or facility?

A1. The public school district providing services to students in the program or facility receives the ADA funding.

Q2. Does the ADA (Average Daily Attendance) funding for students confined in a residential program or facility cover the full costs for providing educational services?

A2. It depends on the size of the facility, the number of students consistently in the program, and the types of instructional services required. In the Kerrville ISD, for example, the state funding does not cover the required expenditures for providing adequate educational services.

The chart below provides a two-year snapshot of state funding versus costs in the Kerrville ISD. While it should be noted that the program was significantly downsized by the county in 2006-2007, the fact remains that state ADA revenue only covers roughly 1/3 of the overall instructional services expenditures each year.

	2005-2006	2006-2007
Revenue from ADA	$76,000	$21,000
Expenditures	$207,000	$61,000
Profit / (Loss)	($131,000)	($40,000)

§ 39.132. SANCTIONS FOR ACADEMICALLY UNACCEPTABLE AND CERTAIN OTHER CAMPUSES. If a campus performance is below any standard under Section 39.073 [0] (b), the campus is considered an academically unacceptable campus. The commissioner may permit the campus to participate in an innovative redesign of the campus to improve campus performance or shall take any of the other following actions, to the extent the commissioner determines necessary:

(1) issue public notice of the deficiency to the board of trustees;

(2) order a hearing conducted by the board of trustees at the campus for the purpose of:

(A) notifying the public of the unacceptable performance, the improvements in performance expected by the agency, and the sanctions that may be imposed under this section if the performance does not improve within a designated period of time; and

(B) soliciting public comment on the initial steps being taken to improve performance;

(3) order the preparation of a report regarding the parental involvement program at the campus and a plan describing strategies for improving parental involvement at the campus;

(4) order the preparation of a report regarding the effectiveness of the district- and campus-level planning and decision-making committees established under Subchapter F, Chapter 11, and a plan describing strategies for improving the effectiveness of those committees;

(5) order the preparation of a student improvement plan that addresses each academic excellence indicator for which the campus's performance is unacceptable, the submission of the plan to the commissioner for approval, and implementation of the plan;

(6) order a hearing to be held before the commissioner or the commissioner's designee at which the president of the board of trustees, the superintendent, and the campus principal shall appear and explain the campus's low performance, lack of improvement, and plans for improvement; or

(7) appoint a campus intervention team under Section 39.1322.

GENERAL INTERVENTIONS

A number of steps may be taken in response to identified concern(s) based on the nature and severity of the problem(s) identified. The Commissioner of Education has the authority to take action under TEC §39.131 and TEC §39.132, Sanctions for Districts and Sanctions for Campuses, respectively. These sections of statute list sanctions in order of severity, ranging from requiring the district to issue public notice of the deficiency to the board of trustees to appointing a management team (district) or special campus intervention team (campus).

If a district or campus receives the lowest rating for two consecutive years or more, the level of state intervention increases and includes possible closure or annexation (district) or reconstitution (campus). For districts and campuses issued Not Rated: Other in 2006 due to hurricane-related issues, the 2005 and 2007 ratings shall be treated as consecutive years. Under standard procedures, the 2002 and 2004 ratings are treated as consecutive years, since no new ratings were issued during the 2003 transition year. Under AEA procedures, 2002 and 2005 are treated as consecutive years, since no AEA ratings were issued in either 2003 or 2004.

Ratings remain in effect for one complete school year following the issuance of the rating. For example, the 2006 ratings issued in August 2006 remain in effect until new ratings are issued the following August. This also applies to a rating lowered during a school year based on a special accreditation investigation—the final rating remains in effect until a subsequent rating is issued. Any sanctions that require a rating for a period of one year or more may be imposed immediately upon the issuance of a final rating for a given school year. A sanction that requires a rating for a period of two or more years may be imposed immediately upon the issuance of a final rating for the second consecutive year.

LOWERING A RATING

Additionally, TEC §39.074 and §39.075 authorize the Commissioner of Education to lower a campus and/or district accountability rating. Lowering an accountability rating is typically not the first action taken in response to a problem. However, if other actions are not successful in correcting the problem, a district is unresponsive, or the severity of the problem warrants, this is an option available to the Commissioner. If the Commissioner determines that a change in rating is appropriate, the district is notified in writing.

DATA INTEGRITY ISSUES

A rating can also be changed to Not Rated: Data Integrity Issues. This rating is used in the rare situation where the accuracy and/or integrity of performance results have been compromised and it is not possible to assign a rating based on the evaluation of performance. This label may be assigned temporarily pending an on-site investigation, or may be assigned as the final rating label for the year. This rating label is not equivalent to an Academically Unacceptable rating. The Commissioner of Education has the authority to assign an Academically Unacceptable rating for data quality issues, as described above in Lowering a Rating. All districts and campuses with a final rating label of Not Rated: Data Integrity Issues are automatically subject to desk audits the following year.

Examples of locally-defined indicators include:

- level of parent participation;
- progress on locally administered assessments;
- progress on goals identified by campus improvement plans;
- progress compared to other campuses in the district;
- progress on professional development goals; and
- school safety measures.

As a different approach, districts may choose to expand the state-designated accountability ratings. For example, they may wish to further differentiate among campuses rated Academically Acceptable or AEA: Academically Acceptable.

A third approach might be to examine those base indicators, both currently in use and planned for implementation, that fall short of local expectations. Additional performance measures could be constructed to track efforts to improve performance in those areas.

Regardless of the strategy chosen, local accountability systems should be designed to serve the needs of the local community and to improve performance for all students.

System Safeguards

System safeguards are those activities conducted by TEA to ensure the integrity of the system. These help protect the system from purposeful manipulation as well as from the use of data of such poor quality—whether intentional or not—that no reliable rating can be determined.

These analyses include, but are not limited to, an audit of leaver data; examination of assessment data including data attributed to JJAEPs and/or DAEPs; review of the issuance of new campus identification numbers; and an analysis of the KRI code values compared to prior year attendance information. If these or any other analyses raise cause for concern, TEA will follow up with the district.

To the extent possible, TEA-conducted safeguards are incorporated into the data integrity monitoring component of the Performance-Based Monitoring (PBM) system. This component of the PBM system was implemented in its pilot year in 2005-06. PBM is part of an overall framework for program monitoring and interventions developed in response to legislation passed in 2003. New strategies for monitoring are data-driven with interventions designed to improve performance and program effectiveness. As a result of PBM activities, sanctions may be imposed.

Sanctions

Sanctions describe the consequences that can occur as a result of:

- problems identified through the application of system safeguards;
- unacceptable performance; or,
- investigations authorized under the Texas Education Code (TEC).

Student Documentation for [REDACTED]

Summary

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] should be removed from the calculations. Smith was sent from Bandera County and housed at the KCJDC from November 17, 2003 until his removal on December 8, 2003. On December 4, 2003, the Bandera County Judge committed [REDACTED] to the Texas Youth Commission (TYC) for a time not to exceed [REDACTED]'s 21st birthday. He was initially processed in the Marlin Orientation and Assessment Unit (MOAU) for 60 days. Ultimately, [REDACTED] was discharged from TYC (San Saba State School) on November 11, 2005, and during his stay he earned his GED on February 2, 2004. At the very least [REDACTED] should be considered a "continuer" or "other leaver" given that he was committed to TYC and received educational services there in keeping with the judge's orders.

Order of Documentation

- 1) Copy of court order for student commitment to the Texas Youth Commission signed December 4, 2004 in the Bandera County Juvenile Court. Note that on pages two and three of the order, the court found that "the best interest of the Juvenile...will be served by placing...and committing the Juvenile to the care, custody, and control of the Texas Youth Commission," and that in reference to educational needs, that the student "shall be placed in the proper curriculum as determined by ... the Texas Youth Commission."
- 2) Copy of Texas Youth Commission discharge report for student showing the last TYC Facility attended being San Saba State School, the committing county as Bandera, and the date that GED was earned while in the San Saba State School.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF BANDERA COUNTY, TEXAS,
SITTING AS A JUVENILE COURT

DISPOSITIONAL ORDER OF COMMITMENT TO THE TEXAS YOUTH COMMISSION

On the 4th day of Dec, 2003, a disposition hearing was held in the above-styled and numbered cause. The Juvenile, [REDACTED] appeared with the Juvenile's attorney, [REDACTED], and with the mother of the Juvenile, [REDACTED]. Also present were the State of Texas, represented by the prosecuting attorney, [REDACTED], and the Bandera County Juvenile Probation Department, represented by [REDACTED].

Prior to the hearing, the attorney for the Juvenile was provided with access to all written matter to be considered by the Court in disposition.

All parties announced ready for trial. After hearing the evidence and argument of counsel, the Court finds that on the 4th day of December, 2003, the Juvenile was found to have engaged in delinquent conduct, that the Juvenile is in need of rehabilitation, and that the protection of the public and the Juvenile requires that disposition be made.

This Court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for the Juvenile to be removed from the Juvenile's home and to make it possible for the Juvenile to return to the Juvenile's home. The Court finds that the Juvenile, in the Juvenile's home, cannot be provided the quality of care and level of support and supervision that the Juvenile needs to meet the conditions of probation. The Court finds that the best interest of the Juvenile and the community will be served by placing the Juvenile outside the Juvenile's home and committing the Juvenile to the care, custody and control of the Texas Youth Commission. In addition, the Court commits the Juvenile to the Texas Youth Commission for the following reason(s):

* The seriousness of the offense requires that the Juvenile be placed in a restrictive environment to protect the public.

* Local resources of the court are inadequate to properly rehabilitate the Juvenile.

* The financial condition of the Juvenile's family prohibits any long term secure, residential treatment in a local facility to rehabilitate the Juvenile and protect the public.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that [REDACTED] is hereby committed to the TEXAS YOUTH COMMISSION in accordance with Chapter 61 of the Texas Human Resources Code, and Section 54.04 of the Texas Family Code, for an indeterminate period of time not exceed the time when the Juvenile shall be twenty-one

Summary of Parole Performance / Circumstances:

[REDACTED] has performed very well since beginning of parole. At his first meeting he inquired about the "Fast Track" and stated that his goal was to complete Parole in the 6 month period. He was explained criteria for this and was very confident that he could do this. He has actively sought employment and worked most of the time he was on parole. He has attended every scheduled meeting except when it was flooding and he called to reschedule since he could not get through the high water. Whenever he was confronted with a problem he would call me to get advice stating that he wanted to make sure he was not violating conditions of parole. [REDACTED] has completed all of his required community service restitution ahead of schedule. He has used very good judgement when dealing with his anger problem and although he moved out of the home of his mother he continues to talk with her when he has problems. [REDACTED] has consistently brought in documentation of his 40 hours constructive activity per week. [REDACTED] appearance has been good and he has remained drug free, which he is very proud of. [REDACTED] continues to want to pursue a goal of attending Culinary Arts schooling.

Student Documentation for [REDACTED]

Summary

[REDACTED] should be removed from the calculations. A resident of Kendall County, [REDACTED] was court-ordered by the Kendall County Justice of the Peace, Precinct 3 on March 25, 2004 to pursue a GED, ostensibly as an alternative to being charged with truancy in the Boerne ISD. He was later sent to the KCJDC from April 28-30, 2004. Educational decisions were clearly made by the courts for this student prior to being in KCJDC for two days. However, our district is held accountable for a neighboring county justice's decision-making that required a Kendall County student to obtain a GED. This student should at least be considered to be in the "other leaver" category.

Order of Documentation

- 1) Copy of court order for GED signed March 25, 2004 by the Kendall County Justice of the Peace, Precinct 3, one full month prior to the student's entry into the Kerr County Juvenile Detention Center.
