Message:

This "win at all costs" to cling to political power by gerrymandering districts MUST END. In rigging the system by drawing maps to select voters, a political party has disenfranchised millions of voters in Texas.

The United States of America is a representative democracy. Districts must be drawn to give voters representation. I support an independent redistricting commission or other impartial and transparent means to ensure that elected officials are duly elected by and fairly represent their constituents.

Candidates should be aware of their constituents' needs and concern, then campaigns and elections could then be based on policies and platforms that reflect those needs and concerns.

This is the very foundation of Election Integrity. Texas voters must be confident that elections can be conducted fairly without dishonest manipulation of districts.
