Message:

The level of blatant partisan gerrymandering reflected in all of the map proposals is a shameless reflection on a desperate grasp to retain power. The citizens of Texas should be choosing their representatives in Congress. Instead, these maps show just the opposite. These maps demonstrate classic "packing and cracking" to dilute the voices of the very communities that have grown the most in Texas.

I would hope that those drawing the maps would find their consciences and do what's right for citizens, not just their own interests.

Sincerely,

Janice W. Williams
