To whom it may concern:

I am writing to let you know that I deeply oppose the proposed congressional redistricting. As proposed, it cuts my city and only my city away from the surrounding county in which we live and work. It would cut us off from communities we do business with regularly and share community resources with. This proposal would combine the city of Denton with counties in the panhandle that are much more rural and therefore would have very different needs from an elected representative than our city would have. This would essentially drown out our voices and needs and is unfair to the voters in the city of Denton. Thank you for your consideration.
