Message:

The purpose of redistricting is to create opportunities for fair representation for all constituents. The census showed the population growth in Texas favored Black and brown Texans. However looking at the proposed maps not only do they disenfranchise black and brown communities, but they also favor one political party.

The submitted maps need to be investigated and redrawn by an independent committee and not current sitting elected officials of one party.

Everyone deserves the right to vote and fair equal public servant representation and the proposed maps fail to do that.
