Message:

Texas Senate District 16 is currently 100% urban, and both Wise and Western Denton Counties are predominately rural. The urban areas in Dallas County have nothing in common with rural Denton and Wise Counties and should not be lumped in with them. The proposed map is gerrymandering.

Regardless of political affiliation, the proposed map for Senate District 16 is a travesty for all who live in this Senate district. District 16 now looks more like today's Texas. The proposed redistricting map for District 16 looks like Texas of 100 + years ago.

I live in Dallas County, and I pay taxes in Carrollton and Dallas County. My state senator should also live where I live, in this urban city of a large urban area, not in a distant rural town. Wise County has half the population of Carrollton, nevermind the rest of the urban areas of Far North Dallas included in this proposed map.

Again, residents of Carrollton deserve to be represented by someone who is urban, not gerrymandered into a rural county.
