Message:

It has come to my attention that Texas is redistricting. It has also come to my attention that my community of Magnolia, Texas will be split up. If I am looking at the map correctly, I will be in the Harris County district. I moved out of Harris County 24 years ago and I do not want to be a part of Harris County again. I truly love my community and the changes this redistricting will bring about a small rural community will not appreciate and that my neighbors and I do not want! We want to stay together - please vote against splitting up my community! It is said that this redistricting will make it fairer. I do not think so because Harris County will not fight for Magnolia because we are too small to worry about. If that is true, then keep my community together! I appreciate you giving this matter significant attention. Thank you!
