Message:

I strongly oppose the proposed district maps, especially in Texas's largest counties. It is clear by the jagged lines that the maps were drawn to dilute the voices of Travis, Dallas, Tarrant, Bexar, and Harris counties. Neighbors aren't represented by the same Congressman because neighborhoods are getting ripped apart.

As an Asian American who lives in a city, my voice will absolutely get diluted when my representative is focused more on the White, rural areas that make up the majority of their district. These maps need to be redrawn to ACCURATELY represent communities instead of pulling neighborhoods apart.
